

A Statement from the ICG Managing Director

It is policy of ICG Compliance Pty Ltd to maintain an ethical, professional, impartial service which utilises internal procedures for the continual assessment of conflict of interests and the maintenance of impartiality within the provision Certification Services.

We at ICG, including all of our Administrative and Audit Team Staff, have established systems and processes to maintain the confidentiality of information gained through the provision of our services.

A handwritten signature in purple ink, appearing to be 'Julie', written over a horizontal line.

Managing Director

Dated: 23/10/2019